WEN Houston's nationally recognized Young Women Energized (YWE) program supports high school girls pursuing STEM (science, technology, engineering, and math) education. YWE offers students, parents, and educators a jump start to college and career planning with its signature mentoring circle format, hands-on career booths, and interactive sessions for all attendees. The program has received many accolades, including 2021 Best Outreach Program by World Oil.

Our continued efforts focus on empowering women in energy by awarding STEM focused Houston-area high school students with $10,000 scholarships. Sponsor contributions go to the WEN Houston Education Fund held with the WEN foundation, a qualified 501c(3). These scholarships are life changing for the recipients and an impactful opportunity for organizations to grow and develop the energy talent pipeline.
